| 2.0 | The Chairman then asked members for any comments or corrections they might wish to make to the Minutes of the meeting of September 28, 1976. | | a) Knowledgeable about the University community b) Diplomatic c) Recognizeable within the community | |
| -4 | He also referred to the mandate of the Council which specifies that the chairman of the Council must be a member of the University community. | |
| 3.0.1 | After thanking the members of the Nominating Committee for their work, Prof. Brunet informed the Council of the names of the Committee's candidates: Mr. Brian Rennie, a Loyola student, past Co-President of the LSA and an active member of the Senate and Loyola Faculty of Arts and Science; and Prof. R. Wills, Assistant Dean of Commerce, who has extensive experience with the UCSL. Copies of Mr. Rennie's curriculum vitae were distributed for members' perusal. | |
| 3.0.2 | Prof. Brunet went on to say that both men were willing to stand for election as chairman. However, he noted that Prof. Wills' schedule would limit the time he had available for Council meetings to Thursday and Friday evenings. | |
| 3.0.3 | The Council was not bound to accept one of these names, Prof. Brunet pointed out. It might decline to elect either of them and form a new nominating committee, or it might request the Nominating Committee, as presently constituted, to deliberate further. He proposed a secret ballot be taken to ascertain the Council's wish in this matter. | |
| 3.1 | Dean Audet then moved, Mr. Counihan seconded and it carried that the procedures for the voting be as follows: | |
